

CELEBRATING IN SUMMER 2017

Invitation to celebrate

A celebration is a special day, a social event, at which people get together and socialise.

Celebrations give rhythm to time and people a means of orientation. They provide a welcome relief from the daily routine and always have something grand, something opulent, but also something immediate to them.

This immediate quality cannot be retained nor repeated. That's why we have to seize the opportunity to join in when others celebrate and make life a beautiful play. This summer, we offer you more occasions to celebrate than usual, because we are celebrating several anniversaries: the twinning with Kampen/Sylt, the great meeting of badge of honour recipients with many regulars and the 67th Arlberg music festival.

Be our guest. We look forward to seeing you!

A great celebration

Summer 2017 in Lech is a great celebration. It begins on 27 June 2017 with the opening tournament at the Lech golf course, which celebrated its premiere in 2016 to standing ovations. At the end of the long festival summer, Prof. Dr. Konrad Paul Liessmann invites us to be lazy from 20 to 24 September 2017 at the 21st Philosophicum. The controversial and interesting topic is: Dare to be lazy. Work and its fate.

Our recommendation: get lazy already in the middle of the Lech Festival Summer and listen to a classical or folk music concert. Be a spectator at the Arlberg Classic Car Rally or a regular at the great meeting of badge of honour recipients. Get regally pampered like an elector, king of summer or emperor of indulgence. Or maybe rather get active and play a round of golf? The celebration is a game and the game is a celebration!
